

Grants 2012

- Catholic Charities, Washington DC* $2000
For books and DVD/video resources for use in support groups at the Men's Shelter Transitional Rehabilitation Program serving over 250 homeless men annually.
- CALL, Citizens for Adult Literacy and Learning, Monroe VA* $ 882
For reading materials for their lending library for low-literacy adult learners.
- Homestretch, Falls Church, VA* $2500
To establish a library in this transitional housing program serving homeless families with children.
- Literacy Council Gulf Coast, Lee County FL* $ 550
To provide books for the Moms and Tots program for literacy acquisition.
- Literature for All of Us, Evanston, IL* $1500
To supply books for over 500 at-risk teens in 20 weekly book group programs in underserved areas and alternative high schools.
- University of MD Partners in Print, Montgomery Co, MD* $1000
To fund books for this reading program pairing college student mentors with at-risk students.
- Wright to Read, Alexandria, VA* $1000
Books for elementary school programs serving low literacy students, including funding for home libraries.
- Book Harvest, Durham NC* $3000
To fund "Books on Break" to support summer reading levels in an area where only 32% of 3rd graders are reading at grade level.
- Hogar Immigrant Services, Falls Church, VA* $1000
To provide textbooks for ESOL classes which become part of each student's home library.
- Kids Need to Read, AZ* $1000
To fund books for the Reading Revolution program for middle school students at three schools where 83% are below poverty levels.
- Literacy Council of Northern VA, Fairfax VA* $2500
Funding LCNV's Family Learning Program with textbooks, workbooks and children's books addressing their life-skills curriculum.
- Literacy Lab, Washington DC* $1250
To fund books for 250 low-income kids for this program providing individualized literacy instruction resulting in a gain of 2 grade reading levels in 45 hours with the program.
- Marley Elementary School, Glen Burnie, MD* $ 500
Grant to provide home libraries building parent involvement and literacy education at this underserved elementary school.
- Junction City High School, Junction City, OR* $ 650
To help fund a supply of Oregon's Battle Books so the students can compete in this reading event.
- Prince George's County Community College Foundation, MD* $ 725
To supply books for the Learning Foundations class providing a literacy foundation for students in need of developmental courses to succeed in college.