Grants were awarded in 2015 as follows:

Byrd Library, Springfield, VA $1,500 To fund classroom books for Educator's Night hosted by the friends of the library, reaching six elementary schools, including Title 1 schools. Ellington Fund, Duke Ellington School of the Arts, DC Everybody Wins, Atlanta GA $4,000 To purchase $2000 books for their story time program for Title 1 elementary schools reaching K-3rd grades. First Step Family Support Center, Port Angeles, WA Serving low-income families w/ children 0 - 8, this group takes a two generational approach providing 1600 families (2900 kids) with parenting classes, home visits, literacy services. This funding supports six books home each year to every child participating in their program. For Love of Children, Washington DC $700 Provide funding for books and authors for distribution at their book festival for DC students grades 1-12. Where results show that 80% of attendees have improved appreciation for books and reading. Hogar Immigrant Services, DC $4,000 Fund text books for adult ESOL and citizenship education. Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD $5000 To fund books for tutoring program pairing at-risk college students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading. Reach Inc., Washington DC $5,000 To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title 1 schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.
School of the Arts, DCserving 530 students.Everybody Wins, Atlanta GA$4,000To purchase $2000 books for their story time program for Title 1 elementary schools reaching K-3rd grades.First Step Family Support Center, Port Angeles, WA$2,000Serving low-income families w/ children 0 - 8, this group takes a two generational approach providing 1600 families (2900 kids) with parenting classes, home visits, literacy services. This funding supports six books home each year to every child participating in their program.For Love of Children, Washington DC$ 700Provide funding for books and authors for distribution at their book festival for DC students grades 1-12. Where results show that 80% of attendees have improved appreciation for books and reading.Hogar Immigrant Services, DC$4,000Fund text books for adult ESOL and citizenship education.Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD$5000To fund books for tutoring program pairing at-risk college students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading.Reach Inc., Washington DC$5,000To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library.Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN$2,000Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need.Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT$1000Books for this small town library with only outdated books.	Byrd Library, Springfield, VA	$1,500	friends of the library, reaching six elementary schools,
First Step Family Support Center, Port Angeles, WA First Step Family Support Center, Port Angeles, WA For Love of Children, Washington DC Square Immigrant Services, DC Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD Spoud Sp		$2,500
a two generational approach providing 1600 families (2900 kids) with parenting classes, home visits, literacy services. This funding supports six books home each year to every child participating in their program. For Love of Children, Washington DC $700 Provide funding for books and authors for distribution at their book festival for DC students grades 1-12. Where results show that 80% of attendees have improved appreciation for books and reading. Hogar Immigrant Services, DC $4,000 Fund text books for adult ESOL and citizenship education. Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD $5000 To fund books for tutoring program pairing at-risk college students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading. Reach Inc., Washington DC $5,000 To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.	Everybody Wins, Atlanta GA	$4,000	, , , book festival for DC students grades 1-12. Where results show that 80% of attendees have improved appreciation for books and reading. Hogar Immigrant Services, DC $4,000 Fund text books for adult ESOL and citizenship education. Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD $5000 To fund books for tutoring program pairing at-risk college students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading. Reach Inc., Washington DC $5,000 To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.		$2,000	a two generational approach providing 1600 families (2900 kids) with parenting classes, home visits, literacy services. This funding supports six books home each year to every child
Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD $5000 To fund books for tutoring program pairing at-risk college students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading. Reach Inc., Washington DC $5,000 To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.		$ 700	book festival for DC students grades 1-12. Where results show that 80% of attendees have improved appreciation for books students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one reading. Reach Inc., Washington DC $5,000 To fund 1000 books for local schools through teen-author readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.	Hogar Immigrant Services, DC	$4,000	Fund text books for adult ESOL and citizenship education.
readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now housed in every single DCPS elementary school library. Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN $2,000 Funding for bilingual books for Title I schools through this nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.	Partners In Print, Univ. of MD, MD	$5000	students with at-risk elementary students for one-on-one nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the program has distributed 1.4 M books to kids in need. Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT $1000 Books for this small town library with only outdated books.	Reach Inc., Washington DC	$5,000	readings of four new books. Their first 9 books are now
	Read, Indeed, Hopkins MN	$2,000	nonprofit founded by an 8 year old who is now 14, the
$27,700	Suffield Middle School, Suffield CT	$1000	Books for this small town library with only outdated books.
		$27,700	